

Disappointed<sup>1</sup> Zachary<sup>2</sup> usually<sup>3</sup> says, “I wish<sup>6</sup> my
any<sup>24</sup> of the tricks<sup>27</sup> that<sup>28</sup> I had once<sup>31</sup> taught<sup>32</sup> her, a<sup>34</sup> long<sup>35</sup> time<sup>36</sup> ago<sup>37</sup>. I certainly<sup>39</sup> can’t<sup>40</sup> teach<sup>41</sup> her
therefore<sup>51</sup> seldom<sup>52</sup> listens<sup>53</sup> to me when<sup>56</sup> I ask<sup>58</sup> her

shuffles<sup>69</sup> his shoes<sup>71</sup> then<sup>72</sup> says, “many<sup>74</sup> times<sup>75</sup> Kayla
with<sup>86</sup> an especially<sup>88</sup> gentle<sup>89</sup> voice<sup>90</sup> and the warmest<sup>93</sup>
must<sup>102</sup> understand<sup>103</sup> that<sup>104</sup> dogs change<sup>106</sup> their<sup>107</sup> habits<sup>108</sup> when<sup>109</sup> they<sup>110</sup> become<sup>111</sup> old<sup>112</sup>.” So<sup>113</sup> Zachary<sup>114</sup>
